petty annoyances, the Government have after careful consideration come to the conclusion that this increased assessment in the shape of Khalsat should be remitted, and they are accordingly pleased to admit that the amount of Khalsat assessment due on such of the Inam lands as are actually in the enjoyment of temples be written off the accounts, and its levy foregone in future, the excess lands being treated as forming part and parcel of the original grant.

No. R. 2973-83, DATED BANGALORE, 9TH JANUARY 1902.

ORDER THEREON.—This matter which has long been pending was again urged before Government in the Dasara Representative Assembly of 1901. The statements received from districts through the Muzrai Department do not furnish complete and accurate information on a uniform basis. It has been, however, gathered from them that the amount of excess involved is in the aggregate about Rs. 1,500 per annum, though they are made up of hundreds of very small individual items.

2. Much opposition has been always shown to this fresh imposition and as a matter of fact no portion of it was ever collected. On the other hand, the collection has been for the last several years held in abeyance and an expectation held out that the Khalsat assessment would be sooner or later remitted. The result has been an undeniably large accumulation of very old arrears encumbering the accounts.

3. The Inam lands are intended solely for the benefit of the temples concerned and their continuance as Inam is absolutely necessary to ensure service being performed in a proper manner for the prosperity of His Highness the Maharaja and the State of Mysore according to the original intention of the several grants. In consideration of the above-mentioned circumstances free these institutions from
